The commitment of TJ to the preservation of the root of music was evidenced both in his conversation and in his performance. He is a traditionalist who feels and projects his obligation to pass on the essence of music to those who come after him. To him the music is not solely about the performance but more importantly about carrying the messages of life from generation to generation.
I would recommend TJ Casey and any of his musical endeavors to all of you who may be seeking a pure talent, filled with a genuine desire to contribute to the preservation of music in its purest forms.
Willis C. Pracht - Tumbleweed Festival - Garden City, Kansas

"Of the stars and superstars of country music pictured in the Hall of Fame in Nashville that graduated from the Louisiana Hayride, we still make no claim to being able to predict who is going to be a star, but if there is any justice, TJ ought to be one of them."

David Kent, President-Producer - The Louisiana Hayride

The Sagebrush Cowboyography Association recently engaged TJ Casey to entertain at our Annual Cowboy Roundup in Sheridan, Wyoming as part of our Evening Feature Performance. TJ is a high energy entertainer and has a complete repertoire of cowboy humor, songs and poems. He engages the audience with his performance and keeps them highly entertained. He is an excellent guitar player and singer and aside from being enjoyable to listen to he is fun to watch. In this world of prefab, plastic and wannabees, TJ Casey is refreshingly the real deal.

Deb Sustrich - Sagebrush Cowboyography Association - Sheridan, Wyoming

You offer the type of talent that patrons would love to have back year after year. The warmth in your singing style is perfect for the family style entertainment we like to showcase. Your professional attitude and reliability helped us to provide quality entertainment. You would be an asset to any fair, but we would love for you to schedule Fremont in your regular route.

Sherilyn Dunning - GM of Fremont County Fair and Rodeo, Riverton, Wyoming

"All of my expectations were met along with many more. Having your group as part of the 2004 Opening Ceremony was fantastic. You became a part of the event...I am 100% happy that we selected you and your band to be part of our 2004 Fair.

Audrey Smith - Skagit County Fair, Mount Vernon, Washington

Teachers have commented that the student's work is excellent, imaginative and thoughtful...They are impressed with his rapport with students and his ability to adapt to a variety of situations.

He is open to suggestions and uses his time well...Students have commented that he is respectful and provides constructive feedback on their work. He provides a structure that enables them to be successful...Casey covers the vocabulary of poetry and song lyrics - stanza, verse, rhyme, meter - and provides a positive environment for students to write...generate a lot of enthusiasm for writing poetry and reading them at public events.
